

privatize Social Security, all independent observers indicate, will cost at least $2 trillion.

While he wastes money on missile defense, he is shortchanging homeland security, all the while proposing more tax cuts for people who do not need them while ignoring the needs of those who do. No wonder he wants to talk about JOHN KERRY's fiscal proposals. His record is indefensible.

EBAY PART OF 21ST CENTURY ECONOMY

(Mr. DREIER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DREIER. Mr. Speaker, last week, we had a great statement made by Vice President CHENEY talking about the new 21st century vibrant economy. He pointed to the fact that there are, in this new economy, 430,000 Americans who make their income, their living, selling on eBay. They are entrepreneurs.

Over the weekend, there were a number of pundits who criticized him, saying, Well, because of the slow economy, that Vice President CHENEY was advocating that people go down and find something in the basement and sell it on eBay, and that will take care of them.

The fact of the matter is, that is not what he was saying. He was talking about an industry that did not exist 10 years ago; eBay did not even exist. Today, we have got nearly half a million Americans earning their living on eBay. Frankly, if you look at the number of people who are selling things on eBay, it is in the millions.

So, Mr. Speaker, it is important for us to acknowledge that this administration and this Congress are helping us build and expand in this new 21st century economy.

THE REPUBLICANS HAVE LOST THEIR WAY

(Mr. GEORGE MILLER of California asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GEORGE MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, what were they thinking? The Republicans that control this House look at our economy and the job losses, the declining wages and rising cost of health care, and you know what they think the problem is? That the people are earning too much overtime pay. So they decided to cut it for 6 million American families.

They look at jobs going overseas, and do you know what they think the problem is? They do not think there are enough jobs going overseas, so they continue to vote for tax credits to help companies send jobs overseas rather than create them at home.

And they look at crime in America, and do you know what they think the problem is? That there are not enough guns and assault weapons on our streets, so they let the assault weapons ban expire and want to end the gun ban in the District of Columbia.

They look at the cost of pharmaceuticals, and they decide that they are not as expensive as the senior citizens in this country find them. So they decide they are not going to let them go to Canada. They are not going to let them reimport drugs from overseas to cut the cost of drugs. Rather, they are going to prosecute them and the governments, cities and counties that are trying to help those individuals have affordable drugs.

They have lost their way.

CONSTITUTION RESTORATION ACT PROMISES FREEDOM OF RELIGION

(Mr. PENCE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PENCE. Mr. Speaker, the American Congress in 1776 adopted a Declaration of Independence which asserted the belief that we are endowed by our creator with certain inalienable rights. In fact, the Congress that adopted the first amendment and its freedom of religion clause also established the chaplaincy and the practice, as we saw today, of opening this House in prayer.

Nevertheless, over the past 42 years, since the famous prayer in school cases, our Federal courts have showed increased hostility toward the acknowledgement of God in the public square. But as we heard yesterday before the Judiciary subcommittee, Congress can finally do something about it.

The Constitution Restoration Act simply put, Mr. Speaker, would use article III powers to deny the Federal courts jurisdiction over any case where the action is brought because a public official simply acknowledges God.

Let us restore that basic freedom of religion in the public square, the acknowledgment of God that our founders so cherished and enshrined in this institution. The freedom of religion must never become the freedom from religion. Let us pass the Constitution Restoration Act in this Congress.

AMERICA NEEDS A LEADERSHIP TRANSPLANT

(Mr. McDERMOTT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, among all the chaos and the economy and Iraq, the administration is bellying these days about tort reform. It is the solution to a national health care crisis, they shout. That is the closest thing to a perpetual motion machine and just as phony.

Tort reform is a smoke screen by the administration to cover its own failure to do anything about the health care crisis. The administration squandered 4 years and did nothing on premiums, slamming Americans with double-digit increases year after year. Americans cannot find decent jobs. That is why millions do not have health care. Millions of other Americans with jobs cannot afford the premiums.

But the administration has to cover its tracks, so they launch a diversion against the lawyers, and they are blaming the other guy because JOHN KERRY actually has a health care plan.

The President has a plan. It is called more of the same; 4 more years of record profits for special interests; 4 more years of skyrocketing costs for the average American; 4 more years of failure; and a 17 percent increase for seniors.

America needs a leadership transplant, and surgery is set for the 2nd of November.

THE 150TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

(Mr. COX asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, this is the 150th anniversary year of the Republican Party. Over a century and a half, from the abolition of slavery to the establishment of women's suffrage, to the freeing of millions in the Soviet Empire and Afghanistan and in Iraq, the Republican Party has been the most effective political organization in the history of the world in advancing the cause of freedom.

So that all of us can learn more about the achievements of this fundamentally American institution in its 150th anniversary year, the House Republican Policy Committee has published the 2005 Republican Freedom Calendar. Each day of the year, the calendar lists an important milestone of the Republican Party's history of advancing freedom and civil rights in America.

It was on this day in 1901, 103 years ago, that America mourned the death of Republican President William McKinley, who established an impressive civil rights record. To show his support for African Americans, President McKinley defied Democrat protests to travel to Alabama and deliver an address at the Tuskegee Institute, which was founded by the celebrated African American Republican Booker T. Washington.

Mr. Speaker, the calendar is available on line at policy.house.gov.

BUSH PROPOSALS

(Mr. PALLONE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, Republicans are at it again. President Bush yesterday attacked Senator KERRY's
